

Buck a Book® Cycle of Community Literacy

BUSINESS & ORGANIZATIONS

Local businesses and organizations sponsor the campaign by donating books, funds, and incentive prizes. With their help, all money raised goes to adult education programming in our community. Sponsors and donors are recognized on our website, on the Buck a Book envelopes, and on promotional flyers as our partners in literacy!

The Need

A recent study found that one in six adults in the United States has low literacy skills. That is 36 million adults. One in three has low numeracy skills. Studies show that improved reading, math, and computer skills are associated with better wages and more stable employment.

The Employment Skills Center is a non-profit adult education agency that provides free classes in Adult Literacy, Adult Basic Education, GED® Preparation, English as a Second Language (ESL), Pre-Nurse Aide training, Forklift training, and Work Readiness training. We believe that education is the key to better job opportunities, family-sustaining wages, and more meaningful involvement in the community. We serve hundreds of participants each year throughout Cumberland County.

In order to continue offering these vital programs, we need your help!

WHAT IS BUCK A BOOK?

The Buck a Book Literacy Campaign raises funds for adult literacy programs while inspiring K-5 students to read and get involved in the community. Buck a Book Kids read lots of great books while gathering pledges of support for adult literacy. All money collected helps fund adult education programming provided to the community by the Employment Skills Center.

KIDS

- 📖 Kids are challenged to read as many books as they can during the two-week Buck a Book Literacy Campaign.
- 📖 Kids ask friends and family to support them with pledges of a buck or more per book.
- 📖 Kids earn prizes for all levels of participation, starting at just $1.
- 📖 Kids learn about the lifelong importance of reading and writing beyond the classroom.
- 📖 Kids feel pride in helping others!

SCHOOLS

The Buck a Book Literacy Campaign provides schools with a proven program that celebrates the importance of literacy while helping the community.

The campaign features a writing contest and special recognition for the top readers and fund raisers in each school.

The Campaign provides schools with all promotional materials including the Buck a Book collection envelopes which list the books read and the funds donated. The Buck a Book Committee takes care of all the details like tallying books, totaling funds, and calculating and distributing prizes earned. We partner with school librarians to make the program fun and easy for everyone.

Schools earn books for classrooms and trophies for participation! Classes can earn special prizes like field trips to the Harrisburg Symphony and the Carlisle Theatre!

BUCK A BOOK COMMITTEE

Our committee is made up of educators, parents, students, and community leaders who support literacy and are excited to make a difference.

COMMUNITY

Members of the community, from adult education students and educators to firefighters and musicians, read to children during their regularly scheduled library class. Buck a Book committee members coordinate these visits with the elementary librarians. Kids see literacy in action!

Children also view a video which explains how some adults in our community struggle with reading and what they can do to help.
